[ADVERTISEMENT]

THE BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.

CHARLOTTE, Nov. 19, 1868.

I offer my absence from home as an apology to my friend, Geo. W. Mordecai, late President of the Bank of North Carolina, for my seeming want of respect for, or due appreciation of, the advertisement he was kind enough to favor me with in the "Raleigh Sentinel" some weeks since. My friend, Mr. Mordecai, is mistaken if he thinks that by any personal controversy with me he can shield himself from the just indignation of his Stockholders, at the manner in which he has bankrupted the Bank and thereby destroyed the value of their stock. I shall not trouble the public much with any difference between Mr. Mordecai and myself as to our individual transactions; but I shall, as a stockholder of the Bank of North Carolina, call for an investigation of the manner in which Mr. Mordecai, and his Board of Directors, have squandered my stock, as well as that of other stockholders. As to Mr. Mordecai's charge that the tact of his sending gold to New York, and having it converted into United States Bonds, being reported to the stockholders in June, and being then approved by them, every stockholder at that meeting knows that this statement is not true. Mr. Mordecai, at that meeting, gave the stockholders no satisfactory information about the Bank. He held in his hand a paper that was supposed to be his report, but did not read it, and when the Secretary of the meeting, supposing it to be his report, reached out his hand for the paper, Mr. Mordecai withdrew it. I submit, that it is ungenerous towards the stockholders for Mr. Mordecai to attempt to saddle them with this great blunder of his. Why send this gold to New York, when gold was worth more in North Carolina than in New York? Mr. Mordecai could but know that every Banker in North Carolina bought gold in New York to sell for a profit at home! If necessary to send the gold to New York, it certainly was not necessary to permit the bonds to remain for months in New York, liable to attachment, and this too after Mr. Mordecai had been warned by an attempt once before to attach the funds of the Bank in New York. From the manner in which the Bank has been managed, as I will show in this communication, for the exclusive benefit of Mr. Mordecai and his friends, it looks like this fund was placed in New York in order that it might be attached by some of Mr. Mordecai's friends, and, unluckily for them, just before the apple was fully ripe, it fell into other hands, and hence the trouble!—As to the allegation that I am the owner of the bills, &c., this can make but little difference to the stockholders whether A or B attached the funds; the fault is in Mr. Mordecai, who, unnecessarily, exposed them. The attaching party but exercised a legal right, often exercised by the Bank of North Carolina. Our Court dockets have always been filled with suits of the Banks against the people. Then the Banks were plaintiffs; now, since the tables are turned, and the Banks are fed out of the same spoon that they so long fed the people with, there is a great outcry. The Banks have often sold for debt the poor man's plough horse and the milch cow, and now let the same justice be meted out to them that they so unrelentingly measured out to the people.

Friend Mordecai, how cruel it is in you to try to array your stockholders against me, when you know so well that, as the agent of your Bank, I have made raids on other Banks in this State, and that we have been together in these raids, hand and glove; you standing in the background and receiving without any compunctions of conscience your part of these "ill-gotten gains." If you deny this, let Yanceyville and Wadesboro speak! Then, it was all right in me and all very nice; but now, the case is changed—my friend Mordecai's ox is gored this time.

As to Mr. Mordecai's statement about compromises, this he has misrepresented.—Fortunately for me, all of the propositions for compromise were submitted in writing. Mr. Mordecai can publish these letters if he desires, and I request him to do so—the only condition I impose is that he publish all and set a part, for "thereby hangs a tale' that Mr. Mordecai will not unfold.

Having disposed of Mr. Mordecai's charges, I, as a stockholder, demand that Mr. Mordecai and his Directors call a meeting of the stockholders to investigate the mismanagement of the Bank. Let it be known why Mr. Mordecai was so patriotic as to invest so much of the Stockholders' money in worthless paper and so careful not to invest his own means in the same way. If my friend will pardon the illustration, it reminds one of the noisy, patriotic politician who enlisted all of his able bodied relations for the front and failed to volunteer himself. Let it be known why it was that near four hundred thousand dollars of gold on hand at the close of the war, was not sold when gold was worth fifty per cent. premium, thus saving hundreds of thousands of dollars to the stockholders. A "National Bank" could have been started with a capital of six hundred thousand dollars, with branches located in the State where the Bank heretofore had branches, which would have supplied our people with currency, and by this time the debts of the Bank could have been paid off and the stock been worth something handsome. Yet, instead of either of these courses, the gold, or a part of it, was placed in the hands of a few of Mr. Mordecai's friends, who have been using it without interest. Let it be known where this money has been that has been bringing the stockholders no interest. Let the twenty or thirty thousand dollars of expenses since the surrender be looked into. Let it be seen who has grown fat whilst the stockholders have starved. It is said that these Directors—"honorable men" as they themselves say they are—served before the war without compensation. Then the stockholders received dividends; since the war these Directors vote themselves pay and vote the stockholders no dividends. Let all be known about that splendid financial operation by which Mr. Mordecai and his Directors, large stockholders in the Bank of the State of North Carolina, paid themselves, from the assets of the Bank of North Carolina, par value, for a deposit of over sixty thousand dollars, due the Bank of the State of North Carolina before the war; at the same time Mr. Mordecai refusing to pay other depositors more than twenty five cents in the dollar.—At the same time these Directors compromised a suit against the Bank of the State for over forty thousand dollars, paying eighty cents in the dollar for the bills. If you could do no better with this deposit, Mr. Mordecai, why did you not pay the eighty cents for these bills and turn them over to the Bank of the State in payment of this deposit? This would have saved the stockholders of the Bank of North Carolina twenty per cent., but it would have been a loss to the stockholders of the Bank of the State of North Carolina, to wit: Messrs. Mordecai and Directors, twenty per cent. Other parties have been paid, by Mr. Mordecai, par for claims against the Bank. I deem it unnecessary to mention names.

Let it be known why it was that Messrs. Mordecai and Directors, stockholders in the Bank of the State of North Carolina, sold to themselves, as Directors of the Bank of North Carolina, real estate in the city of Raleigh, at a price more than its cash value—property that the Bank of North Carolina had no use for—the money being taken from the assets of the Bank of North Carolina and paid to the Bank of the State of North Carolina. Let it be known why it was that Mr. Mordecai, after paying himself and friends par for their claims against the Bank, without consulting his stockholders, by voluntary petition placed the Bank into bankruptcy. Mr. Mordecai had four months to consider, yet in all that time did not consult his stockholders.—Whether bankruptcy was proper or not, is not the question—stockholders have rights, yet, in this most important act of the Bank, Mr. Mordecai has entirely ignored the views of his stockholders. I venture the assertion that this extraordinary assumption of power by Mr. Mordecai and his Directors, to jeopardize the interests of hundreds in North Carolina, without even notifying or consulting them, cannot be approved of by his stockholders.

I charge that the Bank was placed in bankruptcy to tax the stockholders with enormous fees for assignees and attorneys' amounting to thirty or forty thousand dollars, and to throw these fees into the hands of the same parties who have grown fat on the Bank since the surrender.

I notify the stockholders and the creditors that these same parties will try to control the appointment of assignee; watch out for letters and circulars to that effect. Now, friend Mordecai, in conclusion, let me suggest to you that you gratify me by calling a meeting of the stockholders. I will promise to meet you there, and if I have done you injustice you will have a fair opportunity to set yourself aright.

With very high respect, your friend,
Nov. 25 4t R. Y. McADEN.

To the German Population of North and South Carolina.

ON OR BEFORE the first of February next, (provided 500 subscribers are obtained by that time,) the undersigned proposes to issue from the Daily Messenger office, a live "GERMAN" Weekly newspaper, to be called "THE GERMAN WEEKLY MESSENGER."

The "German Weekly Messenger" will contain all the latest Home and Foreign News, and is to be devoted to the advancement of Immigration to the Southern States, Home Industry, Agriculture, Rural Economy, Mechanical Arts and the Fireside.

The paper, like the "Daily Messenger," will be strongly Democratic in politics, and its aim will ever be to encourage Immigration, and to aid in the building up of the Southern States, which must be done at all hazard.

We confidently rely on the Press, and on our friends throughout the Southern States, in whose interest we shall labor in the future, as in the past, to sustain us in this important enterprise. Rates of subscription $4.00 per annum.

SUFFRAGE.

The Radical party is certainly a party of progress. Gen. Grant, observing this, placed himself, in his letter of acceptance, in a position either to go with that party or not, as he might determine. Public opinion is so changeable, he thought it unwise to commit himself—leaving himself at liberty to accept or reject any policy which might or might not command the support of the people.

It would seem monstrous, however,—at least, it would so have appeared in former days,—if any party should, in a few months, abandon a policy which it had solemnly embodied in its platform of principles. Yet the Radical party does not stop at any thing to carry out its designs upon the Federal character of the government.

The Chicago platform affirmed the principle and the policy, that the reconstruction policy of the Southern States was a fixed fact, but that the question of suffrage in the "loyal States" must be left to the States themselves. But so soon as the success of the party was secured in the late election, that principle is abandoned, and now it is equally a fixed fact that the Congress will adopt an amendment to the Constitution forcing negro suffrage upon all the States. That this will be done, we have no doubt, and that three fourths of the State Legislatures will be so manipulated as to carry it, within the next year, need not be doubted. In that event, negro suffrage will become a fixed fact, and the negro will then, possibly, be taken out of American politics.

But the work of progress will not stop here. Manhood suffrage will not reach the summit of Radical progress. Woman suffrage, for some years, will agitate American politics, and finally triumph, unless the principles of human rights and of representative government should be crushed before the next Presidential contest,—an event by no means improbable. Should another Presidential election ever be held, woman suffrage will be one of its chief issues, and it will triumph,—not so much because the women desire and demand it, but to furnish food for demagogues and partizan politicians. The same men, who have engineered negro suffrage, are becoming swift converts to the new ideas upon the rights of women. But why, if it is a question of right, should the women be excluded? Are they not, as to virtue and intelligence, the equals and the superiors of the men? In an investigation of qualification as to manhood suffrage, it will be found that as large a number of males need guardians as females. Indeed, the judgments of females seem to be vastly more intuitively sound than the judgments of men. We are not advocates of either,—Both contain the seeds of destruction to a republican government. Both are, therefore, wrong. But if we are to have universal manhood suffrage, give us, with it, universal woman suffrage. The women are better now than the men. Give them both the power of suffrage, and matters will sooner reach the climax of anarchy and confusion, desired and sought for by the Radicals, rendering the absolute control of the one-man power imperious.

GEN. GRANT'S CABINET.

We had supposed that the East, North and West would engross the entire Cabinet of Gen. Grant. It had not occurred to us that any one would seriously entertain the idea of getting in a Southern man, much less would expect him to make a selection from North Carolina.

Some days ago, however, we observed that some friend of "Gov." Holden had, in the New York Herald, passed quite a eulogy upon him and attributed to him qualifications for the Cabinet. The object of that article has been more apparent, since, by certain movements in this quarter.

We are told that a plan is on foot to place Gov. Holden, if possible, in the office of Secretary of the Interior. It is said, by some of the manipulators, that his chances are decidedly favorable. Of course, so far as the Governor is concerned, the real object is not simply to promote him, to which, of course, he will offer no objection, but, at the same time, to remove him out of the way of others. Some time ago, it was said that if Gen. Grant was elected, General Abbott would prefer a foreign mission to his position in the Senate, but a change has come over his dreams, and he now prefers to remain where he is. Under the idea of a transfer of Gen. Abbott from the Senate, it was generally conceded that Gov. Holden would be his successor. This change of plan renders it necessary to get the Governor into the Cabinet. It is understood that the Lieutenant Governor is quite pleased at the prospect, and has already indicated a preference for Dr. Barrow as his successor, as President of the Senate. We do not speak advisedly, but gather these rumors as they are passing.

Part of this scheme must fall through.—Among those presumed to be best advised as to the formation of the Cabinet, nearly all the writers agree in giving Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, a place, and, with great unanimity, they put him down as Secretary of the Interior. Besides, if North Carolina is thought of by Gen. Grant in his appointments, some one, perhaps, may have the offer of a third or fourth rate foreign mission. The knowledge which Generals Sherman and Schofield have of the Radical leaders in this State, we judge, from what we have heard, would be fatal to the Cabinet claims of any of them.

DEMORALIZATION.

If the press is an index of the moral status of the country, it is palpable, that while there is a general quiet and an entire lull in political agitation, the country is full of crime and wide-spread demoralization. In this regard the South presents fewer phases of immorality than the North. Individual instances of crime are less frequent than at the North, and in respect to official fraud, peculation and general obliquity among men entrusted with responsibility, they are much rarer in the South. With us, these things seem to be the exception, while in the North they appear to be the rule.

The late election frauds, charged upon both parties in the North, the whiskey frauds, general official delinquency, and the absence of integrity among all classes of officials, form a good portion of the editorial comments of the Northern press. Now that they have ceased to gloat over the "new rebellion" in the South, and to intensify Northern hatred to the Southern people, they have turned their attention to the delinquencies of each other, and they present to the eye of honest observers a most hideous picture of Northern society.

The office seekers are in commotion to secure the best berths for themselves and their friends, and to effect the removal of the ins; while those who have enjoyed the offices are in earnest to retain their positions. Gen. Grant, to avoid their approaches, remains but a short period in one place. He will likely be on the move most of the time until the fourth of March. If he could possibly get rid of the scoundrels, and call to the aid of the government none but competent, honest men, it would be fortunate. Gen. Grant, however, possesses no special gift to discern spirits or judge men, only as others judge them, and, therefore, he must rely on fallible judgments like his own. He will most likely do as his predecessors have done, and will select some good and some bad men, who will probably have no easy task in attempting to check the revolutionary spirit of the party, whose candidate he was, if they should be disposed to do it. If the Ship of State, with a strong man at the helm, his pilots aboard having torn up their chart, (the Constitution,) should drive on under a free sail, without recking or heeding the rocks on either hand, or the breakers ahead, until she is dashed in pieces, it need not surprise any one.

THE VOTE BY DISTRICTS.—The following are the respective majorities by Congressional Districts in the late election, viz:

First District.—Majority for C. L. Cobb, Radical, 3,583.

Second District.—Majority for D. H. Heaton, Radical, 2,602.

Third District.—Majority for O. H. Dockery, Radical, 1,961.

Fourth District.—Majority for J. T. Deweese, Radical, 1,240.

Fifth District.—Majority for I. G. Lash, Radical, 3,402.

Sixth District.—Majority for F. C. Shober, Democrat, 1,089.

Seventh District.—Majority for Plato Durham, Democrat, 18.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE.—It will be seen, by the Governor's Proclamation, in another column, that the Electoral College will meet in this City, on Wednesday next, for the purpose of casting the vote of the State, as required by law.

From an analysis of the result of the election, as given in the Proclamation, it appears that W. S. Pearson, of Burke, leads the Grant ticket by three votes, and that Capt. J. J. Davis leads the Democratic ticket by 59 votes. A. H. Galloway, the negro candidate for Elector, runs 639 votes behind Mr. Pearson. The majority of the highest candidate on the Radical ticket over the highest on the Democratic ticket is 12,206.

THE NEW RADICAL PROGRAMME.

Wendell Phillips in the Anti-Slavery Standard

We see, therefore, with great encouragement a movement in several different quarters to submit a constitutional amendment obliging all the States to make suffrage impartial in relation to national offices. We would have it so in regard to all offices State as well as national. The amendment to the Constitution should provide that no State should make any distinction among its citizens in regard to civil or political rights or privileges, the right to suffrage or to eligibility to office, on account of race, color, or previous condition. The Constitution will not be perfect till sex also is included in this last enumeration.

From the Times.

The proposed amendment if made will certainly work a radical change in the nature and character of the government. * * It will approach in some essential respects more nearly to the imperial form of a democratic government than many will think either wise or safe. We are inclined, however, to believe that it will obviate more serious evils than it will cause, and the tendency of political sentiment is clearly and strongly just now in that direction.

I have very good authority for stating that the negro suffrage amendment to the Constitution will be passed by a unanimous Radical vote in both Houses at an early day of the session, notwithstanding the adverse decision of several Radical States.—Wash. letter in Balt. Gazette.

Asylums for inebriates have been established in Pennsylvania, New York, and Massachusetts, and great results of good are said to have been accomplished by them.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 25, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

The President stated that he had applied to the Ministers, who are members of the Senate, to open the sessions with prayer, and they had respectfully declined, owing to the action of the Senate, several days ago, in reference to that matter.

Mr. Smith presented a petition from W. G. Hicks, late Sheriff of Wilkes county, praying for an extension of time to collect back taxes. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Welker, from the Committee on Public Charities, to whom was referred a resolution authorizing the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum to insure said property, reported favorably, and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Winstead, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to extend the time in which certain widows dissident from a deceased husband's will, reported favorably, and the bill passed its second reading.

The same, to whom was referred a bill to amend title 7, section 72, of the Code of Civil Procedure, reported an amendment, and recommended its passage. The amendment was adopted, and the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Brogden, from the Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Mutual Home Insurance Company, reported back the same, recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Rich, it was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The same, from the Committee on Finance, to whom was referred a resolution in favor of Quentin Busbee, reported back the same and moved its reference to the Committee on Claims. The reference was made.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS, &C.

By Mr. Etheridge: A bill to protect the fowling interests of Currituck county. [It appears that certain persons have posted their marsh lands to prevent hunting on them. This bill declares null and void the action of the Court in such cases and prohibits the posting of any of the marsh lands hereafter, that will interfere with the fowling and fishing interests.] Referred to a Special Committee appointed on that subject.

By Henry Eppes, (col.): A bill for the relief of the county of Halifax. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Lindsay: A resolution in favor of Wm. Thompson, Wm. Grimes, Wiley D. Jones and R. K. Ferrell. Lies over.

By Mr. Robbins: A resolution proposing to amend the rules of the Senate, prohibiting the printing of any matter, except by special order of the Senate. Lies over.

By Mr. Love: A resolution, proposing to raise a Joint Committee, composed of one member from each Judicial District, to examine section 11, title 2, of the Code of Procedure, and report by bill any changes which they may determine on. Adopted.

By Mr. Blythe: A resolution, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to give the Code of Procedure a critical examination, and to report to this body such amendments as they may deem necessary.

After considerable discussion, on motion of Mr. Winstead, it was amended, by recommitting the Code to the Commissioners appointed on that subject.

The question recurring on the adoption of the resolution, as amended, on motion of Mr. Hayes, the whole matter was laid on the table.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a bill to amend an act to establish Special Courts in the cities of Wilmington and Newbern. (This bill proposes to establish a Special Court in the city of Raleigh, empowering the Judge to appoint the Solicitor of the Court.) Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Also a bill fixing the time for holding the Superior Court in the county of Henderson.

On motion of Mr. Blythe, it was laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Winstead, the Judiciary Committee was ordered to be increased—the additional number subject to the decision of the Chair. The President appointed Mr. Graham, Senator from Orange, on that Committee.

The resolution in favor of A. C. Avery was reported from the Enrolling Committee and ratified.

Leaves of absence were granted the Senators from New Hanover and Warren.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until Friday morning, (to-morrow being Thanksgiving,) at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 25, 1868.

House called to order at the usual time.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of Chatham, of the House.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs. Pou, Gibson, Ellis, and Price, (colored.)

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Mr. Gibson presented a petition from W. H. Hestler. Referred.

Mr. Kelly, of Davie, presented the report of the Commissioners of his county, with survey and map. Referred to Committee on Counties and Townships.

Mr. Hodnett wished to know if the law required the report to be presented to the General Assembly. He had turned his county's over to the Secretary of State.

The Chair replied that the law required it to be presented to the General Assembly.

Mr. Argo presented a memorial from several Superior Court Clerks in the State. Referred to Committee on Salaries and Fees.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Pou, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported upon the following bills, viz:

To provide for the appointment of Entry Takers, and recommended its passage.

For the protection of debtors, recommending that it do not pass.

To amend chapter 9, Code of Civil Procedure, recommending that it do not pass.

The bills were placed upon the Calendar.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Pou: A resolution (the Senate concurring,) to allow members elect, banned by the 14th Article, who had been present, their mileage and per diem for the time of their attendance.

Mr. Pou moved that the rules be suspended, and the resolution be adopted at once.

W. J. Hayes, (colored,) was in favor of paying all except those banned by the 14th Article.

J. S. Leary, (colored,) wanted to know what gentlemen had been deprived of their seats, except those banned.

W. J. Hayes: Certainly, contested elections, in cases of alleged fraud. Men have come here, knowing themselves to be ineligible, thereby defying the laws of the Government.

J. S. Leary, (colored,) then proceeded to speak in favor of the resolution.

Mr. Estes moved to strike out the words, the "Senate concurring."

Mr. Pou accepted the amendment.

Mr. Downing said that he was under the impression that the Senate had sent a concurrent resolution to this House to this effect, last session.

B. W. Morris, colored, moved to refer the matter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

J. H. Harris, colored, of Wake, opposed the reference, and urged the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Malone said that he represented a county, whose Representative, last session, had been refused, and he thought himself called upon to say a word in this matter. The nature of this resolution was well understood. The gist of the argument of the Representative from Craven, (B. W. Morris,) was that those gentlemen came here, knowing themselves to be banned, and attempted to palm themselves off upon this Legislature. Now, almost in every instance, the alleged disabilities of those gentlemen arose from the fact of having held offices that, in the opinion of many legal minds, worked no disqualification. Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts had so decided and publicly expressed such opinions. The Senate had invariably given pay to those gentlemen whom their decision had declared ineligible. He thought it nothing but simple justice that these gentlemen should receive pay and mileage.

Mr. Pou, in a speech of some length, advocated the measure. He did not see any necessity for a reference. They should, in a matter of simple justice, rise above mere party feeling. In regard to the argument that those gentlemen came here, in defiance of the laws of Congress, why, how many gentlemen here can define, in all cases, who are banned, and who are not? He would venture to say that four fifths could not tell; he could not.

W. J. Hayes, colored, wanted to know if those gentlemen came in defiance of the law, knowing themselves to be banned, was it not a good reason why they should be refused pay? Why were they put up for seats in this body?

Mr. Pou replied that those who "lived in glass houses should not throw stones."—Why, the gentleman who so ably and efficiently fills the Executive Chair was nominated and elected, while laboring under disabilities. Suppose Congress should have considered that a defiance, on our part.—Did not gentlemen come here banned and have their disabilities removed by Congress, after they had reached this city? Mr. Pou continued to urge the adoption, and, during his remarks, touched upon the operations of the 14th article.

Cuffee Mayo, colored: May I ask the gentleman a question?

Mr. Pou: Certainly.

Cuffee Mayo: Will you tell me what is the Howard Amendment?

Mr. Pou explained and then resumed his remarks, and, in conclusion, offered an amendment, allowing pay only from the 1st. to the 16th. of July last.

Cuffee Mayo, colored, opposed the whole matter.

Mr. French was in favor of referring to some Committee; he did not care which. He thought some of those gentleman entitled to pay; others were not. He wanted the matter settled and the proper distinctions made.

Mr. Foster was in favor of the reference.

Wm. Cawthorne, colored, wanted a direct vote. He thought they were as well prepared to vote now, as they would be at any future time. He saw no necessity to refer.

Mr. Forebee said those gentleman had come here in good faith, in obedience to the proclamation of the Governor elect, and he thought they should be reimbursed for the expense which they had undergone in so doing. It was nothing but a matter of justice, and one for which there was a precedent of years and years standing.

After considerable discussion, Mr. Foster moved to refer to a Special Committee.

Mr. Estes opposed any reference, and took the ground that whether or not any of those gentlemen came here in good faith, they were entitled to mileage and per diem for the time they were here.

J. S. Leary, colored, favored the resolution in a speech of some length, in which he cited the case of Stephens in the Senate.

Mr. Ingram also supported the measure and opposed any reference.

G. W. Price, colored, thought that they should rise above all party consideration. He would support the resolution upon the broad principles of justice.

Mr. Foster called the previous question upon his motion to refer to a Special Committee. The call was sustained and the motion was put and lost.

The motion to refer to the Committee on Privileges and Elections was also put and lost.

The rules were then suspended and the question recurred upon the amendment of Mr. Pou, limiting the operation of the resolution from the 1st of July to the 16th.

The question was put and carried. Upon the passage of the resolution, the yeas and nays were called, and resulted in the adoption of the resolution, as amended, by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Argo, Armstrong, Barnett, Barnes, Boddie, Candler, Carey, (colored,) Cawthorn, (colored,) Cherry, (colored) Clayton, of Transylvania, Davis, Davidson, Dixon, Downing, Durham, Ellis, Ellington, Estes, Farrow, Ferebee, Forkner, (colored,) Foster, Franklin, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (colored,) Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodnett, Hoffman, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Laflin, Leary, (colored,) Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Price, (colored,) Proctor, Proffitt, Ragland, Robinson, Reynolds, (colored,) Shaver, Short, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Sykes, (colored,) Thompson, Vestal, Vest, Welch, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Sampson, Williamson, (colored,) and Wiswall—77.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Banner, Blair, Carson, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Gunter, Hayes, (colored,) Hodgin, Horney, Hudgins, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Mayo, (colored,) McCauless, Moring, Morrill, Morris, (colored,) Pearson, Rea, Renfrow, Robbins, (colored,) Siegrist, Simonds, Sweat, (colored,) Wilson—29.

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably upon the bill to incorporate the N. C. Land and Lumber Company.

Mr. French gave notice he would soon introduce a bill making an appropriation to pay rejected members, as he did not think the action here to-day legal.

By Mr. Green: A bill to amend the charter of the Cheraw and Coalfields R. R. Co. Referred.

Mr. Pou, on the part of the Judiciary Committee, presented a bill to amend an act entitled an act in relation to punishments, and asked to have it printed. It was so ordered.

By Mr. Hoffman: A bill in favor of Jno. T. White, former Sheriff of Gaston county. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A bill to extend the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace and for other purposes. Referred.

Mr. High gave notice that he would introduce a bill to incorporate Lodge —, A. Y. Masons, at ——, Columbus county.

CALENDAR.

The bill to authorize the Commissioners of New Hanover county to issue bonds (introduced by Mr. French) was taken up, and put on its third reading, when,

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored,) said he would like an amendment added to require the sale of the bonds whenever they should be worth so much. It would prevent any fraudulent speculations. As the bill stood, there was room for some underhanded practice.

Mr. French replied that it was proposed to deposit bonds to the amount of $7,000 as collateral security,—the Commissioners giving their note. Upon the deposit, they expected to raise $5,000, and when the note matured, it was to be hoped the bonds would be at par.

J. H. Harris, (colored,) moved to add Wake county. Carried.

Mr. Gunter moved to reconsider the vote, by which Chatham county was included yesterday. Carried.

He then moved to strike out that county from the list. Carried.

Mr. Seigrist moved to add Wilkes county. Carried.

Mr. Ingram moved to amend by increasing the amount to $10,000, instead of $7,000, as provided for in the bill.

Mr. French said he thought that a larger sum than $7,000 would be needed, but he feared that an increase would defeat the bill. Therefore he hoped the amendment would be withdrawn.

Mr. Ingram withdrew it.

J. S. Leary, colored, said he opposed the bill yesterday, but, upon careful consideration, he had changed his mind concerning it. He moved to include Cumberland county. Carried.

Mr. French moved to amend the title of the bill, so as to embrace all the counties recently included. Carried.

The bill then passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 61, nays 31.

House bill No. 21, providing for the appointment of Entry Takers, was next reached and passed its second reading.

House bill No. 22, establishing a Ferry accross Neuse River, in Craven county, also passed its second reading.

By consent, Mr. Estes offered a resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the constitutionality of the bill passed, last session, incorporating the North Carolina Loan and Trust Company. Lies over.

The following bills, reported adversely upon by the Judiciary Committee, were taken from the calendar, and rejected upon their second reading, viz: The bill for the protection of debtors, introduced by Mr. Ragland; the bill to amend chapter 9, Code of Civil Procedure.

House resolution No. 20 (introduced by Mr. Wilson, of Burke,) petitioning Congress to remove the disabilities imposed by the 14th. Article, from all citizens who have been in hearty accord with the Reconstruction Acts, who have not endeavored to get up another rebellion, and who have faithfully kept their amnesty oaths, was taken up.

Mr. French wanted to know how it was to be found out who had been loyal; nothing was contained in the resolution looking towards it.

Mr. Durham moved to amend by striking out after the word "State," so as to make its operations include all citizens in the State.

Mr. Pou offered a substitute, requesting Congress to remove the disabilities imposed by the 14th. Article from all the citizens of the State, and moved to make the matter the special order for Wednesday next.

Mr. French said he was opposed to a general removal of disabilities. It was true there were some Democrats entitled to it, but there were others who were not. Those men who said, in the last canvass, that if they were defeated at the ballot-box, they would appeal to bullets and rally again around their now folded flag,—for such men he would never vote to have their disabilities removed.

Mr. Estes moved to postpone the whole matter until 1st. Monday in January next. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Argo, the House then adjourned until Friday, A. M., 10 o'clock.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over SIX Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Brock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SURE & CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT AND UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death.

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a return of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

THANKSGIVING—SUSPENSION.—This being the day recommended by the civil authorities, National and State, to be observed as a Day of Thanksgiving, this office will be closed. Consequently, no paper will be issued to morrow morning.

DIVINE SERVICE.—We are requested to state that there will be Divine Service and a Sermon in Christ Church, (Episcopal,) today, at the usual hour of worship.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU TO BE DISCONTINUED.—A general order from the War Department has been published, giving the necessary directions for the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau, except for "educational purposes," and so forth, at the end of the present year. It is, however, by no means improbable, that Congress may repeal the law upon which this order is based, and give a new lease of life to the soup-kettle brigade. Every thing depends upon the necessities of "the party" in the South.

"THE OLD NORTH STATE."—The Hon. Lewis Hanes offers to dispose of this paper, being satisfied with his experience of Editorial life, and desiring, we suppose, to devote his undivided attention to the profession of the Law. The establishment is in complete order and its patronage is good. Mr. Hanes has made the Old North State a dignified and able advocate of correct principles, and his retirement, if effected, will be a serious loss to North Carolina Journalism. We wish him all success and happiness, in either event.

MINISTER WASHBURNE.—Mr. Washburne writes a letter justifying his conduct in running away and leaving his friends in the hands of Lopez. It is dated at Buenos Ayres. He says:

"My diplomatic powers had been surrendered, and I could not resume them. I had no longer house, nor home, nor protection. I could have surrendered my family, unprotected, and put them on the Paraguayan steamer the Rio Ana, and could have given myself up to the ruffians who had seized the members of my legation and been carried into captivity, where I could tell no tales, and could not advise my Government and the world of the atrocities and barbarities of Lopez:

"To have thus surrendered myself, instead of hastening to a point where I could communicate with my Government, and do all in my power to rescue my unfortunate friends from the clutches of a wild beast at the earliest moment, I should have been justly censured by the whole civilized world. I therefore embarked on the Wasp, and we hastened down the river.

"I am remaining here to see what can be done to save the persons seized by Lopez. No effort of mine has been or will be spared to rescue the unfortunate men who were torn from me under circumstances of such peculiar atrocity. For them I kept myself in the power and endured the hostility of the worst living man; for them I most cheerfully sacrificed health, comfort, and fortune, and endured persecution and insult. I did all that was in my power to do. My house was crowded with fugitives, and I shared with them all I had and in all the horrors of the situation. All parted from me with the deepest feelings of gratitude. Had the Wasp been at Asuncion when Bliss and Masterton were seized by an overpowering force, and dragged away from me while on my way to the steamer, I am certain that Captain Kirkland would have promptly responded to my request and opened on the town, but, as you are aware, Lopez had kept her below the fortifications, a league below Asuncion, in order to have me at a disadvantage. Of course, in the street, with my wife and child, I could offer no resistance to that outrage upon my flag."

MAJ. AVERY.—It will be seen by reference to the legislative proceedings, which we publish, that the Senate, on Friday, reconsidered its resolution postponing the consideration of Maj. Avery's case until the 10th of December, and finally determined the question of his ineligibility against him. We think that every impartial man will be convinced, on reading the proceedings, that Maj. Avery is not banned by the Howard Amendment, and he was excluded from his seat on partizan grounds merely. We regret to have to come to this conclusion, as we sincerely hoped that every thing like partizanism would be banished from the deliberations of this session of the General Assembly, and that it would devote itself wholly to the practical legislation demanded by the condition of the State and the wants of the people.—Old North State.

An "Ex-Medical Officer United States Army" shows in a letter in the New York World that the mortality amongst the Confederate prisoners at Elmira, N. Y., was as great as that among the Federal prisoners at Andersonville.

Our Fayetteville Correspondence.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 23, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—After a great deal of very mild and beautiful weather, the change into winter seems to have come at length. Yesterday, and last night, we had decidedly the severest weather of the season,—high wind all night and plenty of ice this morning.

Cumberland County Superior Court is now in session,—Judge Buxton presiding. This Fall term will continue two weeks, the whole of this week being consumed by the consideration of the cases on the State docket. It is hardly hoped, even with this extension of the session, that all the business will be got through with. The suit of the State vs. Cape Fear Navigation Company, in which the Company is sued for failure to use the franchises and perform the duties set forth in its charter, and which was tried before Judge Barnes, last Spring, has been continued. The Civil docket is very large. Judge Buxton has already sentenced one or two criminals to work on the Penitentiary at Lockville.

I see great promises held out of a speedy completion of the Chatham Railroad. It is calculated that it will be finished and the rolling stock on by July 1st. Although this is not the route through which Fayetteville is to regain her lost influence and importance, still we may hope for much from even this. It will give us a way out of our prison-house in our old age, and it will be wonderful how our infirmities will disappear, and our good qualities will burst into light, at a full sight of the great world.—This section has a strength which has never been tested, and resources which have never been brought to view, that are destined to rival the best efforts of those who look upon us with indifference and contempt.—Give us but a clearing from here to the great highways of commerce and trade, and our factories will loom up, our foundries will puff and smoke again, and our places of business will become active, vigorous and extensive in their transactions once more. Nor is this all; the products of our soil will be shipped in abundance; our forests will contribute their inexhaustible material to increase our wealth, and our vineyards will, in the course of time, throw upon the market an amount of fine wines of which you can form no idea. That this last is no idle boast, I will prove in my next letter, and will take occasion to show a degree of enterprise and energy among some of our inhabitants, in the cultivation of the grape, which promises the most important results in the future. CLIO.

THE EFFECTS OF THE ELECTION OF GEN. GRANT IN THE SOUTH.

We have observed our Southern exchanges carefully since the election and have been unable to discover, with but one or two exceptions, the exhibition of any other feeling than that of sincere acquiescence in the success of Gen. Grant. For the most part the Southern leading papers have eschewed the discussion of politics in any spirit of bitterness, and, like a prominent Georgia paper, suggest to the Southern people the propriety of settling down calmly and taking a business view of the situation. They do not advise a Southern State to abate one jot of her claims to constitutional equality or withdraw a single protest she may have made against the usurpations of a radical Congress; but they advise, "Let not the intellect and energy of the South be wholly devoted to these themes." These are wise and timely suggestions, and we repeat, instead of rancorous partisan articles we are glad to see that the pens of the most influential Southern writers are already devoted to the consideration of topics calculated to attract the attention of capitalists to the vast resources of the country, and by building new railroads, new telegraph lines, establishing new lines of steamers, erecting free school houses, organizing agricultural societies and offering premiums for the best specimens of agricultural products, not only restore the South to her pristine prosperity, but open a pathway for her to reach a still higher degree of wealth and greatness. It is only necessary for our Southern friends to continue in this course, which is one signally demanded by the progress of the age and of the American nation particularly, to insure for them a complete restoration to their former rights and influence. It is folly for them to contend any longer against the reconstruction laws, bad and tyrannical as they are, so long as the political power of the country rests in the hands it does. We believe that in the pursuit of peaceful avocations, in efforts for the development of the hidden wealth of the country and in the establishment of law and order in districts where confusion and anarchy may have prevailed and may still prevail, the South will find a warm, true and steadfast friend in the President elect.—N. Y. Herald.

SUPREME COURT.

January term of the Supreme Court commences on the first Monday in January next.

Causes will be taken up as follows:

First week—Applicants for License—motions—causes on 1st Circuit.

Second week—Second and Fifth Circuits.

Third week—Fourth and Sixth.

Fourth week—Seventh and Eighth.

Fifth week——Third Circuit, motions, &c.

The arrangements of the Circuits on the docket will remain, for the present, as heretofore.

On Monday, the first day of the Winter term, applicants will be examined on "the rights of property." On Tuesday, the second day of the term, those who have County Court license, and those who passed an approved examination at the Summer term, and those who pass an approved examination on "the rights of property" at this term, will be examined for license on Pleading, Practice and the Code of Civil Procedure.

The Justices advise all who wish to obtain license to devote at least one year of diligent study to the subject of "the rights of property," and at least six months of diligent study to the subject of pleading and practice (Chitty on pl., Stephens on pl. and Adams' Equity) and the Code of Civil Procedure. No one can obtain license unless he is twenty-one years of age, or will arrive at that age before the next term.—Standard.

The Lynchburg Virginian says: "We published a statement yesterday that Gen. R. E. Lee had been tendered the position of 'supervisor of agencies' of the Knickerbocker Life Insurance Company, for the South, with a salary of $10,000. We saw, last night, the letter making the proposition to him. It was in the possession of Mr. T. L. Alfriend, of Richmond, one of the agents of the company for Virginia, who was conveying it to the General. The letter intimates that if the amount offered is not satisfactory, it will be increased."

DIED:

In Lexington, N. C., on the 3rd day of October, 1868, after a protracted sickness, Dr. WILLIAM RAINEY HOLT, aged 69 years, 11 months and 3 days. The subject of this notice was, in many respects, a remarkable man. Possessing one of the finest and most extensive farms in Western North Carolina, and enthusiastically devoted to agricultural pursuits, he gave, for many years, to his notable plantation, near Holtsburg, the most of his time, talents and money, and at last we may say, his life. Next to his dear and lovely family, his "Model Farm" claimed his undivided affections and his unremitted energy. Fond of beautifying, as well as fertilizing, his valuable lands, of industrious habits and unwearied energy, it is no wonder that the passenger on the cars gazed with admiring eye on Linwood, with its extensive fields of waving grain, its lovely groves of Oak and Hickory, its green pastures of Clover and Timothy, its flocks of the finest Southdown Sheep, its herds of superior Devon cattle, and pronounced it the most splendid farm, and affording the most cheering agricultural view, anywhere on the line of the Central N. C. Railroad. With a mind highly cultivated, and devoted to Science, he brought to bear upon his agricultural labors all the aid of scientific research And here perhaps, in tender judgment, was his capital error, but an error, (if it be one,) in the right direction. He always would have the best fertilizers.—the best Guano and Phosphates, the most improved implements of husbandry, as well as Sheep, Cattle and Horses of the best accredited blood, without that discriminating regard to cost, which would repay the purchaser. A careful and bountiful provider for his household, true and lasting in his friendships, kind and affectionate in disposition, affable and courteous in manner, he himself enjoyed, and made his guests enjoy, the comforts, amenities and delights of his homestead, whose chief satisfaction, (beyond the endearments of wife and children,) consisted in the pleasures of a liberal hospitality, which he enjoyed to a great extent. As an internal improvement man, and an agriculturist, he stood among the foremost in his native State. A kind and genuine friend, a fond and indulgent parent, a faithful, loving and ever confiding husband, he left his earthly home to join, we trust, once more, in a happier world, those noble sons, whom disease and war had torn from his loving embrace on earth. A worthy communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Dr. Holt attested, in his dying words, his faith, hope and love in Christ, his Saviour,—and, languishing for months under a wasting disease, contracted on his farm, he nearly ran out the allotted span, three score years and ten, when he was gathered to his fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience; "in the communion of the Catholic Church; in the confidence of a certain faith; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope; in favor with Thee, our God, and in perfect charity with the world." Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov 25, P. M.

McCulloch has ordered the sale of $2,500,000 of gold per week, in St. Louis, to relieve importers.

He has also issued orders, directing the deposit of Internal Revenue taxes with United States Assistant Treasurers, or designated Depositaries, in cities where they exist, after December 1st.

Gen. Grant visits Boston this week, and, returning, spends Monday and Tuesday in New York.

Col. Powell, of Tennessee, has been appointed Consul to Port Stanley, Falkland Islands.

The State department is officially advised that Washington is fixed by Johnson and Stanley as the place for the meeting of the Alabama Claims Commissioners. Details not fully settled, notwithstanding contrary reports.

It is known that our government is satisfied with the progress of the negotiations and has no reason to doubt that the arrangements for the settlement of the claims will be satisfactory to both nations.

FROM RICHMOND—UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE CHASE.

RICHMOND, Nov. 25, P. M.

Chief Justice Chase, in his order, to-day, dispensing with the test-oath for Grand Jurors, explained that it was the additional oath prescribed by Congress, which is to be taken, unless the Court, in its discretion, directs otherwise.

He adds: "Scruples at taking it, expressed by some of the Grand Jurors known to be among those best qualified for the responsible duties of their position, have induced us to inquire whether the public interest now demands that the taking of it be required; and we are satisfied that while the matters affirmed in it are proper cause of challenge, in particular cases, the ends of justice will be hindered and defeated, rather than promoted and secured, by directing it to be administered unless some special occasion shall demand it.

No such special occasion now exists, and inasmuch as the required number of Grand Jurors have not yet been sworn, we will order that those, who have been sworn, be discharged, and the Marshall will summon another Grand Jury in the usual manner."

FROM FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 25, P. M.

In the Supreme Court, this morning, Lt. Gov. Gleason was granted further time, (until four P. M.,) to show cause why a writ should not be issued immediately. After which the Court adjourned till 10, A. M. to-morrow, out of respect to General Waldy Thompson, and to allow the members of the Bench and Bar to attend his funeral.

Advisory opinion were delivered this morning on questions submitted by Gov. Reed, some days since. The opinions are unanimous, lengthy, well fortified by precedents and authorities, and sustain Gov. Reed's position. They decide that no Legislature assembled under Gov. Reed's proclamation for a special session, and that if there had been a legal Assembly, the form of impeachment was irregular and not in accordance with law or precedent. They declare that the mere passage of resolutions of impeachment does not impeach.

A colored Senator, who was present, states that when articles of impeachment were presented to the Senate, (so-called,) that not a quorum of the members in attendance on the session were in the Senate chamber.

Little doubt exists but a writ of quo warranto will be issued, but the arguments begin to-morrow and may continue several days.

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE PICTURE'S STORY.

Verses on a Drawing by Rossiguy.

Does she read of a little bird that flew
Out, far out, o'er the winter's blue,
To be the pet of a good ship's crew,
And eat from a sailor's hand,
On board of a ship that sailed away—
Sailed and sailed for many a day;
And whither she sailed no tongue can say,
But she came no more to land?

Or does she read of a rose that fell
From its mother stem in a forest dell,
And lit on a tiny streamlet's swell,
And floated away with its tide—
And on and on in shadow and sun,
On till the streamlet's course was run,
On till the wandering deep was won,
Where it shrunk and withered and died?

Or does she read of a May-day cloud,
Where skies were brilliant and winds were loud,
White and fleecy, and slow and proud,
As it sailed through the upper air,—
Stately as thought, and light as grace,
And bright as the sun, and grand as the sea,
But never, oh never, again to be
These noble and gentle and fair?

Or does she read of a snow flake light,
That floated down through a moonless night,
Still, and peaceful, and cold and white,
To its rest on a sleeping stone—
Where, many a brother and sister nigh,
Weeping sadly to see it die,
When the sun came back to the noonday sky,
It wasted without a moan?

But, whatsoever she reads, 'tis sure
That bird rose, cloud, and snow-flake pure
Are types of beauty that cannot endure,
And are therefore types of this,—
Childhood sweet in the morn of its days,
Innocence, dreaming its quiet ways,
Purity, living its hymn of praise
For youth's unspeakable bliss.

Oh, murmur on, sweet, childish voice!
Whatever your story, she loves the choice
Who listens, and feels her heart rejoice.
Who listens, and feels her heart rejoice.
May the brightest of fates be yours!
In loveliness grow, and in goodness too;
Be gentle in all you say and do;
And the emblem live, forever true,
Of the beauty that endures! —[Wm. Winter

AN ACCOMMODATING JUDGE.

At a far Western Court, the case of Smith vs. Jones was called on.

"Who's for the plaintiff?" inquired the judge, impatiently.

"May it please the court," said a rising member of the legal fraternity, "Pilkins is for the plaintiff, but I left him just now over in the tavern playing a game of poker. He's got a sucker there, and he is sure to skin him right smart, if he has only time. He's got everything all set to ring a 'cold deck,' in which case he'll deal for himself four aces and his opponent four queens, so that your honor will perceive that he must 'rake the persimmons.'"

"Dear me!" said the Judge, with a sigh; "that's too bad! It happens at a very unfortunate time! I am very anxious to get on with this case."

A brown study followed, and at length a happy idea struck the judge:

"Bill," said he, addressing the friend of the absent Pilkins who had just spoken, "you understand poker about as well as Pilkins. Suppose you go over and play his hand!"

And Bill did so.
